The little one had been ailing for several months. The funeral services were held Friday afternoon from the Lutheran church, Rev. Maurice Levitt, of Sioux City, officiating. Interment was in the Dakota City cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Antrim feel very grateful for the kindly assistance rendered by their neighbors in their hour of sorrow.

Hudson, Wis., News, July 28th: The McDonald Brothers show that exhibited on the Williams lot last Saturday drew good audiences afternoon and evening. For a small circus it is an exceedingly creditable one. The ponies and dogs were up to the minute in training, the club swingers have no superiors, the trapeze artists and the contortionist were upstate performers and the band was excellent. The show is a good one and so likewise is its management, and the proprietors pay their bills and faithfully meet all obligations contracted.

How to get into new families is the big problem of publishers. The State Journal of Lincoln has solved this by making a big reduction trial offer of only one dollar for the Daily and Sunday to January 1, 1916, and also including the Weekly Independent Farmer. This offer should get new readers by the hundreds and the publishers feel that all that is needed is for the people to become acquainted with The Journal, Lincoln's only morning paper, and the Independent Farmer, which is Nebraska's coming farm paper. A dollar for this combination is cheap. Order it at once and papers will start at once. The great war events make The Lincoln Journal particularly desirable.

L. J. O'Brien, the plumber, and wife, left Saturday for Omaha to reside.

Stott Neiswanger goes to Lincoln next week, where he will attend the military academy.

SCHOOL NOTES

The Dakota City schools have opened with a total enrollment of 129 at the close of the first day. The enrollment by grades is as follows: Eleventh, three; tenth, seven; ninth, fifteen; eighth, eleven; seventh, nine; sixth, fifteen; fifth, four; fourth, seven; third, thirteen; second, fourteen; first and beginners, twenty-one. Miss Ross has the largest number, there being thirty-five enrolled in the primary department.

Among the new pupils are: Lillie Sides and Marie Lischke, ninth grade; Lester French and Heene Berger, seventh grade; Marie Lischke and George Lahrs, sixth grade; Porter Sides, fifth grade; Clark Anderson, fourth grade; Wilbur Leamer and Margaret Shook, second grade; Dorothy Doolittle, Helen Foltz, Marie Hanson, Katherine Fisher, Aida Powell, Manley Shook, Lois McBeath, Margaret Kirsch, Ruth Cawley and Edward Sundt are new folks in the first and beginner's grade.

The first day of school has passed in a pleasant and profitable manner. Everyone seemed to be dominated with a spirit of earnestness which indicates progress. The dreading of the new day, with its new associations, the new class, new teacher, and new room has passed and we have well begun the work of the year.

Parents are kindly requested not to permit their children to arrive at the school grounds before half past eight in the morning and one o'clock at noon. It will be impossible to properly discipline them if permitted in the building before those hours. Proper exceptions will be made for all children coming from the country. The cooperation of parents in this regard will be greatly appreciated by the teaching force.

We, the teachers of the Dakota City schools, want to serve the people of this community in the most efficient manner possible. We are your servants. We cordially invite you to come and consult us about your children that we may better understand each other and your child. Let "cooperation" be the big word for the school and the home this year.

Five Farms for Sale

All Bargains. Two of them are 4-section improved farms and one is a 4-section improved farm. The other two are improved farms except the buildings. All these farms are from one and one-half to five-miles from Royal, Neb. The above are all good farms and cheap at prices asked, which range from $50 to $75 per acre. Can also show some larger tracts with spring creeks, although there is some rough land on these. They are excellent stock farms, at lower prices, from $40 to $50 per acre. For full information write: I. S. Swetland, Royal, Nebr.

M. E. Church Notes.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. A special rededication service will be held next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The sermon will be preached by the pastor. All members are urged to be present, and a hearty invitation is given to all to attend. The improvements of the church have added to the comfort of the worshippers, and we look forward to the winter services with great expectations. Evening service will be held at 8 o'clock. These services will be a feature of our program. No effort will be spared to make them attractive and helpful. The plain gospel of Jesus Christ will be preached. Please come to all these services. F. J. Atcock, Pastor.

Box Social

The Lutheran and Methodist ladies will hold a box social on the Geo. Kockwell farm on Wednesday, September 15th., at 8 o'clock sharp, near Homer.

Worth $100

I wish to thank you for the most excellent advice you have given me through the columns of Farmer and Breeder as well as through personal letters. Farmer and Breeder is a great paper and is bound to succeed and become even better. It furnishes just the information the farmers of the Middle West need, and it is reliable. Every farmer and stock raiser should be a subscriber to your journal. Some of your issues have been worth $100 each to me, and I have no doubt but that others could say the same thing. I wish you continued success.—Adam Piek, Alton, Iowa.

KILTIES BAND AND VAUDEVILLE FOR FAIR

Nine Big Amusement Acts to Vie With Canadian National Band for Honors at Interstate Show.

Canada's national band, on the last lap of its world tour in which it was honored by being commanded to give concerts before thirty of the world's rulers, will pause in its northward flight at Sioux City and from September 20 to 25, inclusive, will give concerts in front of the Interstate Fair grandstands for the delight of fair guests. Besides the forty master musicians embraced in the band organization, the Kilties are distinguished from other organizations by carrying a group of Highland pipers, dancers and the famous tenor, J. Coates Lockhart. Lockhart is soloist of the Royal Albert Hall, Queen's Hall and the famous Crystal Palace. He will sing several times during the course of each free concert the Kilties will give for fair visitors.

Rivaling this band for honors will be eight headline vaudeville acts, ranging from Hippodrome athletic features to the "Eight Forgetmenots."

Ranking beauties of the wonderful Polly chorus which started New York during the winter. Secretary Morton, in announcing this program, declared that it rivaled the $1 vaudeville bills of New York and Chicago and that the fair had determined to make the experiment in this year's show, believing that the visitors would approve and would quit the grounds as boosters of the association's enterprise.

Five beautiful girls will offer a stately pageant. This number has the title "The Medea Troupe" and under that a novel and a circus headliner. The Viola Calarino flying ladder act had a twelve weeks' run in the New York Hippodrome. The human balance wheel feature of the act is sensational. Two women and a man, listed as the Era Ballet Trio, offer a novelty which the man acts as a pivot, swinging the two women in circles from ropes held between his teeth.

The eight girls from the Follies will present for fair approval their athletic jangling act. This number took New York by storm during the forty-week season in which the "Forgetmenots" were featured. The Lucene sisters, stately beauties, will offer an aerial act in which the Roman ring will be utilized in the making of flying catches. The Six Jacksons, another Hippodrome feature, will give their cycling act. The comedy spot will be occupied by the Five Flying Devils, who feature aerial casting and the double somersault in midair. The Famous Preres De Kock troupe will present a startling juggling act, in which human beings will be pawns of the juggler.

The vaudeville bill will come to its climax daily with the presentation of the Five Ferris Wheel girls. Beautiful women, in butterfly costume, will ride this ferris wheel, their teeth supporting them in the mad flight through the air.
